

Lessons from the Heart

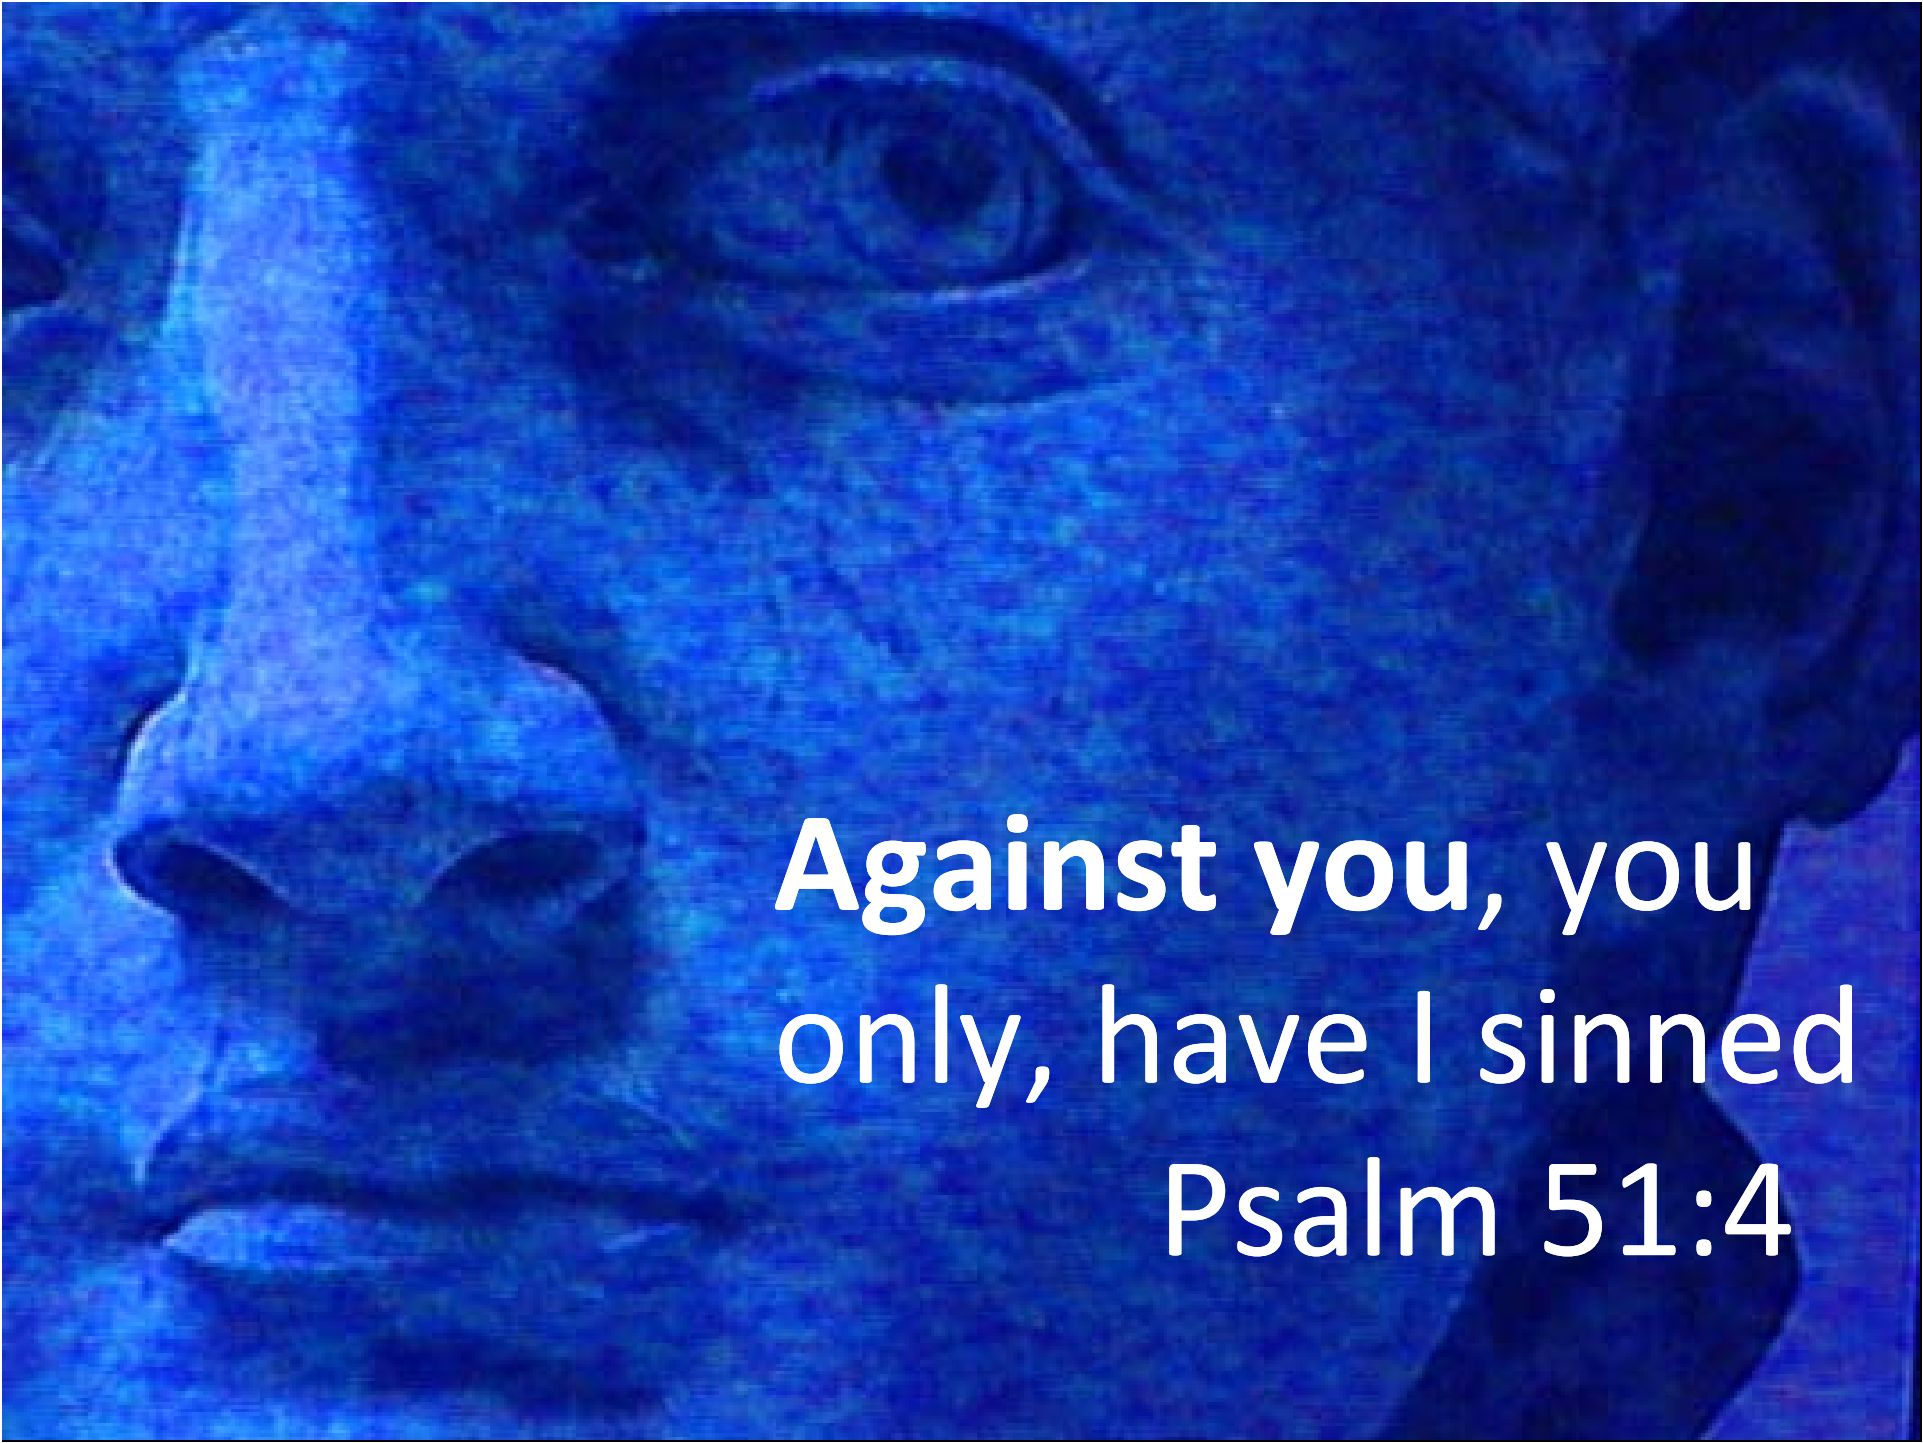

Learning from David

II. The Components of Repentance

1. I have to make up my mind concerning right and wrong.

Against you, you only, have I sinned
Psalm 51:4

II. The Components of Repentance

2. Take full moral responsibility with your will.

Against you, you only, have I sinned

Psalm 51:4

II. The Components of Repentance

3. In your heart realize you've primarily sinned against God

Against you, you only, have I sinned
Psalm 51:4

Then I will teach transgressors your ways, ⁶so that sinners will turn back to you. Psalm 51:13

Open my lips, Lord, and my mouth will declare your praise.

Psalm 51:15

May it please you to prosper Zion, to build up the walls of Jerusalem. Psalm 51:18

What's happen to David?

He came to hate his sin but not hate himself

Against you,
you only,
have I sinned
Psalm 51:4

Psalm 51 isn't a theological paper, it's a prayer of repentance

For the kind of sorrow God wants us to experience leads us away from sin and results in salvation. There's no regret for that kind of sorrow. But worldly sorrow, which lacks repentance, results in spiritual death.

2 Corinthians 7:10

III. The Power for Repentance

... according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion... Psalm 51:1

III.The Power for Repentance

He looked primarily at God and the loss of a relationship with God

III.The Power for Repentance

God's unfailing love that's the secret.
