

Luke 14:1-24
How the Gospel
Influences Lifestyle

3 Ways the Gospel Influences Our Lifestyle:

1. Humility leads us to accept Christ's work for us.

"For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."
Luke 14:11

"Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time."
1 Peter 5:6

2. True treasures come later

¹²Then Jesus said to his host, "When you give a luncheon or dinner, do not invite your friends, your brothers or sisters, your relatives, or your rich neighbors; if you do, they may invite you back and so you will be repaid. ¹³But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, ¹⁴and you will be blessed. Although they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."
Luke 14:12-14

You who have left your house and your fields, or your brothers and sisters, or your father and mother, or even your children in order to follow Me, at that time when all is renewed, you will receive so much more: you will receive 100 times what you gave up. You will inherit eternal life.
Matthew 19:29

3. Remember the sacrifice that got you into the feast.

"A certain man was preparing a great banquet and invited many guests. At the time of the banquet he sent his servant to tell those who had been invited, 'Come, for everything is now ready.' Luke 14:16,17

Luke 14:1-24

One Sabbath, when Jesus went to eat in the house of a prominent Pharisee, he was being carefully watched.² There in front of him was a man suffering from abnormal swelling of his body.³ Jesus asked the Pharisees and experts in the law, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?"⁴ But they remained silent. So taking hold of the man, he healed him and sent him on his way.⁵ Then he asked them, "If one of you has a child or an ox that falls into a well on the Sabbath day, will you not immediately pull it out?"⁶ And they had nothing to say.

⁷ When he noticed how the guests picked the places of honor at the table, he told them this parable:⁸ "When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honor, for a person more distinguished than you may have been invited.⁹ If so, the host who invited both of you will come and say to you, 'Give this man your seat.' Then, humiliated, you will have to take the least important place.¹⁰ But when you are invited, take the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, move up to a better place.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all your fellow guests.¹¹ For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

¹² Then Jesus said to his host, "When you give a luncheon or dinner, do not invite your friends, your brothers or relatives, or your rich neighbors; if you do, they may invite you back and so you will be repaid.¹³ But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind,¹⁴ and you will be blessed. Although they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

¹⁵ When one of those at the table with him heard this, he said to Jesus, "Blessed is the man who will eat at the feast in the kingdom of God."

¹⁶ Jesus replied: "A certain man was preparing a great banquet and invited many guests.¹⁷ At the time of the banquet he sent his servant to tell those who had been invited, 'Come, for everything is now ready.'

¹⁸ But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said, 'I have just bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please excuse me.'¹⁹ Another said, 'I have just bought five yoke of oxen, and I'm on my way to try them out. Please excuse me.'²⁰ Still another said, 'I just got married, so I can't come.'²¹ The servant came back and reported this to his master. Then the owner of the house became angry and ordered his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind and the lame.'²² 'Sir,' the servant said, 'what you ordered has been done, but there is still room.'²³ Then the master told his servant, 'Go out to the roads and country lanes and make them come in, so that my house will be full.'²⁴ I tell you, not one of those men who were invited will get a taste of my banquet.'
